Hair

The Early November

Hello, how are you?
Like your shoes, love your hair.
Hello, how are you?
Love that shirt, you look great.
Hello, how are you?
Love your pants and your smile.
Hello, how are you?
How's your wife and your kids?
Hello, how are you?
Love that hat on your head.
Hello, how are you?
Missed you so
It's nice to see ya.All we have at the end of the game
Is a lonely road out.
All I know at the end of the day
Is the love to smile now (even if that's fake)
All I know is I'm done acting
And I'll be happy for your life (even if I hate it all)Wait for me, I've got to see
The looks that you will get
When you turn down the key
To the town and your social being.All we have at the end of the game
Is a lonely road out.
All I know at the end of the day
Is the love to smile now (even if that's fake)
All I know is I'm done acting
And I'll be happy for your life (even if I hate it all)
(2x)Hello, how are you?
Like your shoes, love your hair.
Hello, how are you?
Love that shirt, you look great.
Hello, how are you?
Missed you so
It's nice to see ya.
