

A Cleaner Light

Kristin Hersh

A highThat's a swell take on this situation
I was trying to rectify
I was trying to skip out on this highKeep away from the freaks on the fringe
They only talk to you
'Cause you give them a good excuse to cryBut in a cleaner light, it's okay
In a cleaner light, it's okay
In a better light, it's okay
In a better light, it's okayThis strange old sunshine beats me senseless
But it's supposed to be
Keeping me healthy, it's a lieYou're a strange old thing that keeps me senseless
But you're supposed to be
Keeping me companyBut in a cleaner light, it's okay
In a cleaner light, it's okay
In a better light, it's okay
In a better light, it's okayI wake up feeling fragile
It's nothing the TV couldn't cure
Or lying here for my whole lifeBut in a cleaner light, it's okay
In a cleaner light, it's okay
In a better light, it's okay
In a better light, it's okayThey only talk to you 'cause
You're there
