

At Least We Tried

Gold Motel

Sharing a room. Sharing a bed.
Not as easy as the things you said.
The ceiling sank. We broke the bank.
And we're all spent. Yeah we're all spent.

The midnight pack that we made
didn't hold up in the light of day.
The ceiling sank. We broke the bank.
And we can't stay. No we can't stay.

Finally got the rules and you changed the game.
I was such a fool when I tried to play.
We could never get it right.
Finally saw the truth when you tongue was tied.
Can't even convince me when you lie.
Now we leave it all behind.
It's all right at least we tried.

Taste of the tears from younger years.
That I've saved up. That I've saved up.
The levee broke with the words you spoke.
Gotta clean up. Gotta clean up.

Once you were the only thing that was constant.
Now the only constant is the need to rearrange.

Finally got the rules and you changed the game.
I was such a fool when I tried to play.
We could never get it right.
Finally saw the truth when you tongue was tied.
Can't even convince me when you lie.
Now we leave it all behind.
It's all right at least we tried.

I got the rules. You changed the game.
I was such a fool when I tried to play.
Now we leave it all behind.
It's all right at least we tried.
