

Orphan Train

Lee Ann Womack

Come all you broken hearted
Come and lay your burden down
 Come Kings and Queens
Come royalty, surrender up your crown
 Come empty handed
Come with nothing of your own to claim
 Come naked, poor
Come like a child to ride the orphan train
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train
 Put your ear to the track
 You can hear your name
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train
 It'll take you all the way home
 The way is narrow
 It is steep, that brings you to the door
 But love awaits
There to embrace your heart forever more
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train
 Put your ear to the track
 You can hear your name
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train
 It'll take you all the way home
 Come you abandoned
 You forsaken friendless and alone
 Come refugees left homesick for
 Some place you've never known
 Here Princes, paupers
 Criminals and saints are all the same
 No more or less
Than God's beloved child aboard this train
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train
 Put your ear to the track
 You can hear your name
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train
 It'll take you all the way home
 Ride, ride on the orphan train
 Put your ear to the track
 You can hear your name
 Come ride, ride on the orphan train

It'll take you all the way home
It'll take you all the way home
It's gonna take you all the way home

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>