The Pousette-Dart Band

Pousette-Dart Band - Winterness (transcribed by Rick Ferris, 2 Nov 2025)

Watching the rain fall down,
Thinking about San Francisco
It all leads me just about right here

Laying awake last night felt real nice
Having you here instead of there
Tension? at all
Living with many but still living alone
It's the circle of seasons
It's both sides of the street

Sure is funny to listen to someone's song for so long
Just like an old friend, now

It's nice to have you back again
So, wandering, wandering, wandering, wandering, wandering, wandering,
Wind blow back this way again

Winterness, subtle bliss now,
Just about misses me
Sure 'nough

Ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya,
Ohhhhh
Ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya, ya,
Say, it's the circle of seasons
It's both sides of the street

I'm just watching the rain fall down,
Just thinking about San Francisco
It all leads me just about right here
I ain't going nowhere
It all leads me just about right here
No, no, nowhere
It all leads me just about right here
