

We're Only Gonna Die For Our Arrogance

Sublime

Early man walked away
As modern man took control
Their minds weren't all the same
To conquer was their goalSo he built his great empire
And he slaughtered his own kind
He died a confused man
Killed himself in his own mindThe early man walked away
As modern man took control
Their minds weren't all the same
To conquer was their goalSo he built his great empire
And he slaughtered his own kind
And he died a confused man
And killed himself in his own mind, let's goThe early man walked away
As modern man took control
Their minds weren't all the same
And to conquer was their goalSo he built his great empire
And he slaughtered his own kind
He died a confused man
Killed himself in his own mind, let's goThe early man walked away
As modern man took control
Their minds weren't all the same
And to conquer was their goalSo he built his great empire
And he slaughtered his own kind
And he died a confused man
And killed himself in his own mind, let's goThe early man walked away
As modern man took control
Their minds weren't all the same
And to conquer was their goalSo he built his great empire
And he slaughtered his own kind
He died a confused man
Killed himself in his own mind, let's goWe're only gonna die from our own arrogance
That's why we might as well take our time
