

Hiding

The Grapes Of Wrath

I know I've gotta find you
Wonder if you're even there
    Taking me for granted
    I can barely stand it
    Wonder why I even care
Oh now baby you, cant you see
    I'm hiding in your arms
Oh now baby you, cant you see
    Don't wanna find myself in harm
Showing me the way I thought I heard you say
    That good things come to those who wait
    Watching every hour, watch it going sour
    Watching you control my fate
    Oh now baby you, cant you see

    I'm hiding in your arms
    Oh now baby you, cant you see
    Don't wanna find myself in harm
Running out of space, I can't see your face
    I've forgotten how you used to be
Saying that you love me, that you're thinking of me
    Taking my identity
    Oh now baby you, cant you see
    I'm hiding in your arms
    Oh now baby you, cant you see
    Don't wanna find myself in harm
    Oh now baby you, cant you see
    I'm hiding in your arms
    Oh now baby you, cant you see
    Don't wanna find myself in harm
