

Everything You Wanted (Fred Falke Remix)

Kele

I see the bags in the empty hallway
I can tell that something has changed
I see the pain written over your face
And I know I pushed you too far If you want to leave me
You must know one thing I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed I know times, I am lost and gone
I am told I'm only half dead
But you were there in my thoughts
In my head, in my heart above the left side I know the time for us has past
But you must know one thing I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed And I say, dale, dale, I'm a dido
Finding it hard to breathe
And I say, dale, dale, I'm a dido
Finding it hard to breathe I say, dale, dale, I'm a dido
Finding it hard to breathe
And I say, dale, dale, I'm a dido
Finding it hard to breathe I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
I could have given you
Everything you wanted, everything you needed
