Dearest Mistake

The Sleeping

Down that road, looming road
I won't wait for you, I won't wait for youI hope you're sitting while you read this
Stuck in a world, this is the last you'll see of me
Dearest mistake, I can't forgive it, one things for sure
He's not worth your time and heartDown that road, looming road
I won't wait for you, I won't wait for youRight now, I hate myself
I want you to want him, noAs we move on and we look back
We both knew the truth, we were as wrong as wrong could be Even at our worst somehow we made it work
Those days are gone since been cheated by three dull wordsDown that road, looming road
I won't wait for you, I won't wait for youRight now, I hate myself
I don't want you to want him, noSomehow I changed myself
I don't want you to want him
I don't want you, no
I don't, don't want you, I don'tRight now, I hate myself
I don't want you to want him, noI don't want you to want him
But I don't want you
No, I don't want you
