Alone Again

Trust Company

Now every moment rushes through with every breath you take
You're holding close tonight and the world can't wait
This will all be over soon, over soon
You find your meaning in a life that you call emptiness
You cover up the scars that are on your wrists
And I've been waiting here for you, waiting, I've been waiting
All the answers are closer than the waiting
Now it's over, tonight is burning through
Yeah, it's burning through
You'll never be alone again, I will carry you
And take the world on me, I'll carry you
You'll never be alone again, I will cover you
As long as I can breathe, as long as I can breathe
And I remember every word you ever said to me
Between the quiet nights your heart would plea
You never felt so close to me, you'll never be alone
Now every night you bow your head before you go to sleep
You lose yourself in place so perfectly
And I will always follow you, yeah, I will follow you
You'll never be alone again, I will carry you
And take the world on me, I'll carry you
You'll never be alone again, I will cover you

As long as I can breathe, as long as I can breathe
With every move you ever made
I saw the world collapse in front of me, yeah
With every word you ever said
I heard another voice inside my head
Saying you will never be alone again
You'll never be alone again
You'll never be alone again, I will carry you
And take the world on me, I'll carry you
You'll never be alone again, I will cover you
As long as I can breathe, as long as I can breathe
(Now every moment rushes through with every breath you take)
You'll never be alone
(You're holding close tonight and the world can't wait)
You'll never be alone
(This will all be over soon)

As long as I can breathe you'll never be all alone
(You find your meaning in a life that you call emptiness)
You'll never be alone
(You cover up the scars that are on your wrists)
You'll never be alone again
'Cause I've been waiting here for you
