Nobody's Child

Penny McLean

Noone ever cared about me
I'm nobody's child
My middle name was misery
I'm nobody's child
Life is like a long long road
For nobody's child
Standing in the rain without a coat I'm nobody's child.Nobody's child
nobody's child
Nobody's
nobody's child
nobody's child.If you could walk a mile in my shoes
As nobody's childyou'd know what makes me sing the blues
I'm nobody's child
I often cried myself to sleep
I'm nobody's child
Life is like a endless street
For nobody's child.'Body
nobody's child
nobody's child
. . .They tell me now I ain't no more
Nobody's child.
People crowd around the door
Of nobody's child
Money changed a lot of things
For nobody's child
But I tell them when the door bell rings
I'm nobody's child.Nobody's child
nobody's child
