

Now It's Raining In the Center of My Heart

Gina T.

Just another Sunday morning
Just another day
I can see the sky is clearer now
People can try to make me happy
But it's not enough
Cause today it's raining in my heart
Long ago, you told me you'll love me till eternity
But your words are gone, gone with the wind
Now my tears they fall like little raindrops from my eyes
Baby baby baby, I will die

Chorus

Now it's raining in the center of my heart
Cause I'm lost without love
Since we are apart
It rains in my heart
I'm lost without love
Now it's raining in the center of my heart
Cause I'm lost without you
But wherever you go
I hope that you know
I'm lost without you

Everyday, I wake up lonely
Everyday, I try
Try to push away the pain of love
People say forget your heartache
I'm not strong enough
Cause I feel it's raining in my heart
All I want is to lie beside you only one more night
I just want to hold you once again
Now my tears they fall like little raindrops from my eyes
Baby baby baby, I will die
