

The Rhythm Divine

Yello

You know that my tears have kept me awake
The longer you're gone, I'll hunger and shake
From Warsaw to Rome, I'll wait out of time
With you in my heart, the rhythm divine So won't you come close, bring this to an end?
With each winter rose, my love I will send
So tender the night when you hold me tight
With you in my heart, the rhythm divine With you in my heart, the rhythm divine You know that these tears have kept me awake
The longer you're gone, I'll hunger and shake
From Warsaw to Rome, I'll wait out of time
With you in my heart, the rhythm divine
The rhythm divine, the rhythm divine With you in my heart, the rhythm divine
