Barely Legal

Ccero

Officer there seems to be an issue
The girl who broke my heart broke me the worst news
Our dreams of growing up
Are blowing up, she showed me up
But now I'm stuck on her just like a tattoo
One more day face to face and then I could say
You got me crushed at eighteen
I'm barely legal and I can't believe
You ran away and now I'm begging you to stay
Fingers crossed suddenly
I can barely find the room to breathe
I want you, I want you to want me
I want you, I want you to want me
From the heart of the city to the tip of Japan
Experience the romance only found in France
Your dreams have giving up
The door is shut, I'm not good enough
And now I'm lost in the city without a plan
One more day face to face and then I could say
You got me crushed at eighteen
I'm barely legal and I can't believe
You ran away and now I'm begging you to stay
Fingers crossed suddenly
I can barely find the room to breathe
I want you, I want you to want me
One more day face to face and then I could say
You got me crushed at eighteen
I'm barely legal and I can't believe
You ran away and now I'm begging you to stay
Fingers crossed suddenly
I can barely find the room to breathe
I want you, I want you
You got me crushed at eighteen
I'm barely legal and I can't believe
You ran away and now I'm begging you to stay
Fingers crossed suddenly
I can barely find the room to breathe
I want you, I want you to want me
