Who Will Survive In America

Kanye West

Us living as we do upside down.
And the new word to have is revolution.
People donÂ't even want to hear the preacher spill or spiel because GodÂ's whole card has been thoroughly piqued.
And America is now blood and tears instead of milk and honey.
The youngsters who were programmed to continue fucking up woke up one night digging Paul Revere and Nat Turner as the good guys.
America stripped for bed and we had not all yet closed our eyes.
The signs of Truth were tattooed across our open ended vagina.
We learned to our amazement untold tale of scandal.
Two long centuries buried in the musty vault,
hosed down daily with a gagging perfume.
America was a bastard the illegitimate daughter of the mother country whose legs were then spread around the world and a rapist known as freedom, free doom.
Democracy, liberty, and justice were revolutionary code names that preceded the bubbling bubbling bubbling bubbling bubbling in the mother countryÂ's crotch
What does Webster say about soul?
All I want is a good home and a wife and a children and some food to feed them every night.
After all is said and done build a new route to China if theyÂ'll have you.

Who will survive in America?
Who will survive in America?
Who will survive in America?
Who will survive in America?

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/