

How Will I Know

Cousteau

You could be anywhere a passerby might capture my eye unaware you could be anyone but how will I know when my time has come? 'cos in the middle of the day or in the middle of the night how will I know if it's you how will I know it's right and if it all comes down to me to go walking up to you there's one million little things that I'm more likely to do I kinda know you're there a lifetime's knowing a life's undergoing unaware you could be anyone
but how will I know
if my time has come?
