

You and I

The Flaws

this is starting to get real old so how does it feel, underneath some people always make such a show a zero scene here with nothing to feel well i never thought you'd go but anyway, anyway i feel down.

and when you'd cum you'd find out the truth i'd be so far away from you writing letters to anotherone in the sun aint it fun for us mac well i could never shoot you down but every chance i'd get lately i'd take it look there theres nothing left for you even if we're old news

cause maybe its you and i know we're not, living on the inside of it
you and i know

well maybe its you and i know
you and i know
we're just running away i thought about the way you said we'd crash and burn and never learn from anything well look thats what we did we're underseige so call a priest and then there was always the chance that i'd forget just where im from and that would really get to you but fuck, it wont happen to me

you and i know

you and i know

solo

cause maybe its you and i know

we're just running away x4
