

show me who you are

Jesse Boykins III

I hear endless tales of the great things you can do
I hear whispered chance of your miracle
The essence of sensation, yeah
Raw heart embeds few(???)
Hide all this from your love, girl
Why would you?
(???) frame your life so I know for sure the visions
Are portrayed
I'm here to be enhanced, before you adore, just give me more
(Pre-)
I'll take ahead all of the thrills from you
No sense waste loving details with you
Righteousness becomes uncomfortable
I wish I could see through your moods
I wanna know, I wanna know
So show me who you are
Show me who you are
You are the first one in my heart
Let me conquer your art
The passion's full of this pace
Racing against my curiosity
I'd give anything to talk
Find the answers where beauty lies
How much more can the stars coincide?
Our palms and bodies do
Watch reign this kingdom
From your heaven, angel
(Pre-)
I'll take ahead all of the thrills from you
No sense waste loving details with you
Righteousness becomes uncomfortable
I wish I could see through your moods
I wanna know, I wanna know
So show me who you are
Show me who you are
