Sooner or Later

Duncan James

Don't be scared of your shadow
You can't hide from your sorrow
You can't stay here till tomorrowWelcome to the club of broken hearts
Where a thousand lonely souls have passed[chorus]
Sooner or later you're gonna wake up
And find what you're looking for
Like a diamond wahsed up on the shore
In the meantime you're feeling like you're lost without a friend
Sooner or later you're gonna love again
Sooner or later you're gonna love againLove has left you rejected
You put u your defenses
Now, your heart's been tried and tested
Now you join the land of broken dreams
No good wishing for what could've been[repeat chorus]Don't be scared of your shadow
You can't hide from your sorrow
[repeat chorus 3x]
