

On a Clear Daze

Drivin' N' Cryin'

Day time, night time, walking through the time How I see it matters little now Something about the lakefront breeze that the people flock to the inlet sea
on a clear daze
on a clear daze
on a clear daze

Date time, wait line, standing through your walls and how I see it matters little now Something about the lakefront breeze
that the people flock to the inlet sea
on a clear daze
on a clear daze
on a clear daze
on a clear daze

On a clear day I can see see them all beyond the ocean wide beyond the mountain side through the days of one through the walls of none
on a clear daze
