

Conflicted

Sacred Sorrow

A multitude of misled
Chasing clouds of dizzy thoughts
Left behind by broken lives
Shattered years of hatred

Hatred

You seek revenge on anything
Familiar
Anything
Your tears have
Turned to gasoline
Ready to burn most anything
In our way

You're not ready to let go
Of the hurt
Pain has put a gun in your hand
Shoot anything from the sky
As you lay in pain
Walk away...

Only to realize the peace that
You've sought
Was the thing you've spent
Your life trying to deny.
