

Other People

Strangers You Know

Am I conscious or dreaming?
Oh why did this happen?
You said you don't want to see me
Darling then you imagine to Hold back crying and screaming
When I'm watching you laughing
And I have no trouble breathing
When I'm lying and gasping
And you said
'See other people' but I see other people
And they don't look that cute
My heads an on and off switch
And Its been a real bitch deciding what I'm to do
I've been weighing my options going back and forth because it's so hard to choose
When as far I can see the way Imma be Holding the cards that will lose
Cause if I you get back would I even know how to hold on?
Of all the things I have now
?????????
