Home

Dawn Landes

Lord please, follow me home
Cause I'm down on my knees and I feel alone
Home, got nowhere to call home
No one to call homeWhen I'm out on the town I get what I need
No one waiting around for this tumble weed at home
Got nowhere to call home
No one to call me homeThey tell me my time will come and my soul will rise over shadow and stone, The final surprise
Home
Won't somebody take me home
I wanna go home
