

Ask Quietly

Big Charlie

as you become another girl the one I loved was killed by the silent growth
I ask quietly
why did you walk away
when the shape took another step?
I was there, undressed waiting for the girl I met I asked quietly "Do you know where to go when they spin in your head?"
"lights won't come"
"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
Oh
I ask quietly Inside of us there will be no regret until the time we'll see the lights come on we'll ask quietly "Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
"they won't come"
we'll ask quietly
"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
"they won't come"
"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
"they won't come"
we'll ask quietly
"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
Ooooh..I ask quietly your faces in the mirror like we were before there is no u-turn
until we're here
asking quietly
I ask again "Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
"lights won't come"

"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"

"they won't come"

"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"

"lights won't come"

"Do you know where to go
when they spin in your head?"
