

Possession

Ferry Corsten

Cold wind blows, stealing all innocence
The fall revealed all it took from me

All is said, there's nothing more to prove
To spare a second thought
An image of a dream, I will replace and hide

Inside, I'm a storm, I will break to hold on
I love with the thought of possession

I'm eager to please, so much I deceive
I love with the thought of possession

Possession, possession

All feels wrong when you're away from me
The thought that nothing is what it seems

No escape I cannot fight
To be to blame I'm left behind
An image of a dream I will forget I hide

Inside, I'm a storm, I will break to hold on
I love with the thought of possession

I'm eager to please, so much I deceive
I love with the thought of possession

I know I can let go
I know I won't let go of possession

Inside, I'm a storm, I will break to hold on
I love with the thought of possession

I'm eager to please, so much I deceive
I love with the thought of possession
