

Hello? Goodbye!

Lake Street Dive

It feels good to be over you, but it felt good to be under you so maybe it's just you that feels good.

I feel like I should be over you, and good girls do what they should do so maybe I'll just do what I should. I should tell my mind to stop remembering.

I should make my fingers stop their trembling.

And when I pass your doorway I should just walk right by. When you say hello, I'll say goodbye.
