Little Things

Tanya Tucker

Love can't be measured with diamonds and gold Before you spend your money I oughta let you know If you wanna get to me, try the little thingsDon't need that mansion on top of the hill Too many rooms with nothing to fill You can't furnish me with the little thingsRub my back, make me laugh Hold me while I dream All it takes to make my day Is to tell me you love me, little thingsIt doesn't matter what mood I'm in I always melt when you begin Whispering little thingsRub my back, make me laugh Hold me while I dream All it takes to make my day Is to tell me you love meOh, little thingsRainy walks, a midnight talk Dance me on your feet Hold me close, don't let goAll I'll ever need is a single rose A kiss hello, that smile upon your face The tender way, you say my name Takes my breath awayLittle things, oh yeah, ahaLove can't be measured with diamonds and gold All I'll ever need, oh, is little things
