Project 86

Big business ain't easy
I'm sure you'd agree
Especially when the product is eternity
To stay one step ahead we must achieve
And turn this holy temple
Into a factoryIs there anywhere you can run
To hide from the thieves?
Cause eternity's on sale today for a feeOur sanctuary of the this high-rise
Our steeples
Our slogans
Our billboards
Our converts
Oh-don't forget to buy this t-shirt
As you leave
And open up the offering box
And give until it hurtsShow me an open heart and we'll steal it away
Cause eternity's up for sale for a small fee todayFaith is buying me away
Buying me a way
To convert the masses into little servants
Faith is buying me away
Buying me a way
Buying me into your home (soul)This altar is a stage
Our sponsor must be paid
And maybe we'll even make the front page
