A Better Believer

Volbeat

Let her be, she belongs to me

And the moment comes

When I no longer know your nameA lonely maiden stands beyond infernal fire

A prince awaits his destiny for all time

Oh baby darling, you will see

Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feastReborn by the power of the darkness face

A rebirth of his lover to avenge his hate

Oh baby darling, you will see

Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feastHeaven betrayed you

They said that her soul could not be saved

A better believer The blood, his life, his sword sacrificed the cross

Returning with a hunger by the power of love

Oh baby darling, you will see

Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feastHeaven betrayed you

They said that her soul could not be saved

A better believerLet her be, she belongs to me

And the moment comes

When I no longer know your nameA lonely maiden stands beyond infernal fire

A prince awaits his destiny for all time

Oh baby darling, you will see

Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feastReborn by the power of the darkness face

A rebirth of his lover to avenge his hate

Oh baby darling, you will see

Your blood belongs to him, a soulless feastHeaven betrayed you

They said that her soul could not be saved

A better believerLet her be, she belongs to me

And the moment comes

When I no longer know your name
