

Special Kind of Love

Nick Roes

Whenever Iâ€™m a lonely one, I know youâ€™re always there.
You know youâ€™re not the only one, but you donâ€™t seem to care.
So when I donâ€™t know where to go, Iâ€™ll always come to you.
And you can have me any time thereâ€™s nothing else to do.

Special kind of love, not like in the movies,
Special kind of love, not like in the books youâ€™ve read,
Just like me and you in bed, holding on.

Itâ€™s not that youâ€™re the pleasingest, although that may well be.
Itâ€™s just that youâ€™re the easiest there ever was for me.
Youâ€™re not the kind to stop a train or start a bar room fight.
Youâ€™re kind of pretty and kind of plain, but youâ€™re so warm at night.

Special kind of love, not like in the movies,
Special kind of love, not like in the books youâ€™ve read,
Just like me and you in bed, holding on.

I passed up love my whole life long, believing in a dream,
But now I know where I belong, the only place for me.
Sheâ€™s not the kind to stop a train or start a bar room fight.
Sheâ€™s kind of pretty and kind of plain, and sheâ€™s so warm at night.
