

Increase My Faith

Brian Courtney Wilson

To be honest
Sometimes I wonder
If it's come time
To pack it in
If I've given my best
And there's nothing left
So my best days
Are at an end Then I remember that You would never Let me face what's next alone
I know that You're keeping me
Strength when I'm weak
And expect me to carry on
I know that the Lord
Is preparing me
For great things
I have yet to see
But on days when it's hard
To believe
Increase my faith Yeah I wanna live
Right now, life of blessing
Living the blessing
You have for me
Every blessing You have for me
Sometimes it feels
Like I'm too weighed down
Running to fly
But stumbling to the ground
Yeah
Then I remember that You would never
Ever leave Your child behind, oh no
You're with me right where I should be
And the reasons are revealed in time I know that the Lord
Is preparing me
For great things
I have yet to see
But on days when it's hard
To believe
Increase my faith
I will sing that one more time The Lord

Is preparing me
For great things
I have yet to see
But on days when it's hard
To believe
Increase my faith Build my hope for tomorrow
Help me conquer the sorrow
That creeps in when I'm anxious
And lose my way Fill my cup
With all I need
To keep moving, making sure
That You are pleased, yeah, oh I know that the Lord
Is preparing me
For great things
I have yet to see
But on days when it's hard
To believe
Increase my faith
Oh help sing it one more time The Lord
Is preparing me
For great things
I have yet to see
But on days when it's hard
To believe
Increase my faith Ooh, when I feel rejected
Increase my faith
Overlooked and neglected
Increase my faith
When my bills are due
Increase my faith
And my friends feel few
Increase my faith
Bring to my recollection
Increase my faith
Every word that You've spoken
Increase my faith
Telling me You're my helper
Increase my faith
And You always come through
Increase my faith
Always

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.