

Triumph (feat. Inge Van Hulle)

Kompozer

Waking to cold
It stings to breathe
The shadowy mists
Encroach and hold the path, the path I seek
Rebels and kings
That clash and cheat
Shunning their ways and blows
Amidst the throes, a peaceful glow I meet
Standing proud
The roars and shouts and jeers
That turn to cheers
I never doubt
Keep forging ahead
Keep speaking out
Keep weaving threads
Keep standing stout
All in one
All I'll be
I'll stake my fate
Until I'm free
Conquerors' holds
Are obsolete
Beauteous days unfold
The path is bold, the path I seek
Standing proud
The roars and shouts and jeers
That turn to cheers
I never doubt
Keep forging ahead
Keep speaking out
Keep weaving threads
Keep standing stout
All in one
All I'll be
I'll stake my fate
Until I'm free
Glory and hope remain unbeaten
Triumphant, we revel in the victory
Glory we hold within our hearts
Triumphant is the path we take a better start
Triumphant is the path we take a better start
Waking to cold
It stings to breathe
The shadowy mists
Encroach and hold the path, the path I seek
Rebels and kings
That clash and cheat

Amidst the throes, a peaceful glow I meet
Keep forging ahead
Keep speaking out
Keep weaving threads
Keep standing stout
All in one
All I'll be
I'll stake my fate
Until I'm free
Glory and hope remain unbeaten
Triumphant, we revel in the victory
Glory we hold within our hearts
Triumphant is the path we take a better start
Triumphant is the path we take a better start
