Jme

Ha! I'm JME my name is tattooed on the grime scene, People dunno how to test me, I've been doing this from 2003, I'm a bigboy producer, Sick MC, I can even sing in key, I'm a GENIUSSSS, unfortunately..
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like...Born In Hackney raised in Tottenham, Lived Palmers never had a job, im not unemployed im a soul trader dont get annoyed cause im still a bader I've changed from back in the days, dont bust shots at cats like tomb raider still a street fighter but no games I'll low punch, low kick like tomb raider i went werlborn
i went simples i went whichmore, then i went greenwich and i still sold more tunes than you fool who used to spit more so i dont git it (i dont get it) your tunes are dead like tyrannosaurus truthfully your lyrics just bore us more time on your tunes on the radio im waiting for the chorus i make grime music with ease, im try make grime spread like disease im doing well, im not gonna stop till my name rings bells like Dizzies you wont see me with raybans, billabong shorts or flip flops i dont wear converse i write a big verse so you wont see me full stop

You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like JME,
You will never be like...i aint bust one gunshot in my life but im still standing here you wish you was in these nike airs you're there licking off shots in the air you've got a silencer and you squeeze yeah but really none of that matters one minute silence for your enemies and one minute silence for your bank balance (Woah)
common sense need to be renamed cause now a days its rare when i was you my mum used to say Jamie, use what in between your ears so i did and now im here but if i said the same thing to you bre's half of you just smell things all day and the rest of you'll just stare i'll never go mers swear down i aint following nobody im a Shepard im like the spots on a leopard when im on the mic riddim get peppered TRUST
music overwhelmed, i got deep lyrics as you can tell if i work hard for a reload and i dont get a reload, i'll reload it myself
