Only Tonight

Kaya BrÃ¼el

Why you have to leave?
Please stayForgive me if I think
That you're making a bad decision
Forgive me if I try
Please don't go awayDon't blame me if I want
The two of us to stay together
So let me tell you whyIf only tonight
If this is all I got
If I can't have your love
I won't get back up this timeIf only tonight
I'll race you to the sun
Before the morning comes
If I can't change your mind
It's only tonightAnd tomorrow you're gone
And we're just a song
I'm singing aloneAnd tomorrow you're gone
And we're just a song
I'm singing aloneDon't tell me all this time
That you weren't mine
And I meant nothing
Why would you end this dream?Oh no, don't wanna wake up just yet
Don't ask me just to forget
Don't rip the heart out of meIf only tonight
If this is all I got
If I can't have your love
I won't get back up this timeIf only tonight
I'll race you to the sun
Before the morning comes
If I can't change your mind
It's only tonightAnd tomorrow you're gone
And we're just a song
I'm singing aloneAnd tomorrow you're gone
And we're just a song
I'm singing aloneI need you, I need you in my life
Nobody, nobody loves me like you
If there was something I could do
To stop you from leaving
'Cause we're not throughIf only tonight
If this is all I got

If I can't have your love
I won't get back up this timeIf only tonight
I'll race you to the sun
Before the morning comes
If I can't change your mind
It's only tonightAnd tomorrow you're gone
I'm singing aloneAnd tomorrow you're gone
And we're just a song
I'm singing aloneIf only tonight, if only tonight
It's only tonight
