

What I Mean

Modjo

What I mean, what I am
What I feel about the meaning of my life
What I need, what I feel
What I like to say and what I lie about
What I can't get, choose to it
I get out of my mind
The world's just up my feelings
And I just can't even cry
I should rare my way back home right now
(Cause I gave her everything I got)
I can't stand the way she broke my heart
(Cause I gave her) All my dreams, all my hopes
Are the things I love and that I use to know
God, I pray every day
But I feel so empty since you went away
What I can't get, choose to it
I get out of my mind
The world's just up my feelings
And I just can't even cry
I should rare my way back home right now
(Because I gave her everything I got)
I can't stand the way she broke my heart
(Because I gave her) What I can't get, choose to it
I get out of my mind
The world's just up my feelings
And I just can't even cry
This moon will last forever
Or maybe till I die
So why keep holding on
Until I get another time
I should rare my way back home right now
(I'm gonna give her everything I got)
I can't stand the way she broke my heart
(No I can't stand the way you broke my heart)
I should rare my way back home right now
(Cause I gave her everything I got)
I can't stand the way she broke my heart
I should rare my way back home right now
I can't stand the way she broke my heart
