

Somewhere Out In Space (Remastered)

Gamma Ray

I'm trapped in a castle of illusions out in space, no more illusions
Out in a journey, on a mission for the human race
Terrified. I had to realize that I've been takin' to the goods of fire
I got nowhere to stand, 'cause I'm a running man, to get away
All that I see is the years, somewhere out in space
And it's time for deliverance
Tomorrow, I'll see it, another day's rise, right before my eyes
Been sinking in sorrow, but now I'm gonna rise
No more reasons why
I'm a watcher in the dark, I'm so cold inside my heart
I'm a temple in the storm, and I'm bound to be reborn Take me down to the underground, let me see the gods of fire
'Cause I'm know where they live and I know where they stand,
Another reason there to leave
Take me down, take me down, take me to the underground
I want to meet the gods of fire
And all of their intention is the center of it all
All that I see is the years ... somewhere out in space
and it's time for deliverance
Now that I know I've got to get away
Time for deliverance now
And as the sun appeared, up in the sky
I saw another day, that's drifting by
I saw my people cry, a million tears
Into eternity they disappeared
Now it's time to say goodbye, or we will sink in sorrow
No, we don't know the reason why, another day, tomorrow
Oh, thank you for giving me hope
Oh, follow me into a new life
All that I see is the years, all that I see is the tears
All that I see is the years,
somewhere out in space
And it's time for deliverance
All that I see is the fear, somewhere out in space
And it's time for deliverance
I want to know how to get away, I want to know how to get away
Come set me free, just set me free, just let me go
I want to get away, get away
Somewhere out in space
