

My Eyes

Travis

Deep in my heart, there's no room for crying
But I'm trying to see your point of view
Deep in my heart, I'm afraid I'm dying
I'd be lying if I said I'm not
Welcome in, welcome in, shame about the weather
Welcome in, welcome in, you're welcome
It's a sin, it's a sin where birds of a feather
Are welcomed to land on you
Ya ya yay, ya ya yay, you got my eyes
We can't see what you'll be, you can't disguise
But either way I will pray, you will be wise
Pretty soon you will see tears in my eyes
As each day goes by makes way for another
We discover that we're not alone
And each day we try the best we can to recover
All the feelings that we left below
Welcome in, welcome in, shame about the weather
Welcome in, welcome in, you're welcome
It's a sin, it's a sin where birds of a feather
Are welcomed to land on you
Ya ya yay, ya ya yay, you got my eyes
We can't see what you'll be, you can't disguise
And either way I will pray, you will be wise
Pretty soon you will see tears in my eyes
Welcome in, welcome in, shame about the weather
Welcome in, welcome in, you're welcome
It's a sin, it's a sin where birds of a feather
Are welcomed to land on you
Ya ya yay, ya ya yay, you got my eyes
We can't see what you'll be, you can't disguise
But either way I will pray, you will be wise
Pretty soon you will see tears in my eyes
Pretty soon you will see tears in my eyes
Oh, pretty soon you will see tears in my eyes
