

All I Want Is You

Bryan Adams

Don't want diamonds don't want gold...
Don't need no fashion baby don't wanna be cooll.
Don't wanna hustle just to get thru when it all comes down babe
All i want is you...

Don't wanna argue don't wanna fight..
Don't want no politics all thru the night..
i told ya before gonna tell ya once more..
For the last time baby open up your door
All i want is you all i want is you
Not any old giarl will do
All i want is you..

If you don't need love you gonna be nuts
The heaviest metal always rusts
Just you and me babe hanging tough
Its gotta be it's gotta be it's gotta be love or burst.

Don't need a doctor don't need a nurse
Don't need a prescription babe
Only make me feel worse
Don't need a license Don't need insurance
Don't need a ticket where we are going babe
You got my insurance ya
I told you before gonna tell you once more
Fore the first time baby open up your door
All i want is you
All i want is you
Not any old girl will do
All i want is you
