Don't Let the Sun Go Down

Jamie Foxx

So many sleepless days and sleepless nights, I spend alone
Wondering if I'll make it, make it on my own Without someone to hold me, with that holding power if not for a lifetime at least for an hourBut this machine that clicks inside my head
Oh, so cold I'm hanging by a string, never letting goHow my heart breaks and the tears roll
It's you I'm thinking of, but don't let the sun go down on my loveOh, sometimes I think I'm falling and no one is concerned
I'm headed down that pathway, the point of no return
But if I had your love, your sweetness
My baby, my baby, to guide me safely through I'm absolutely lost when I'm without youHow my heart breaks, how the tears they roll
There's an empty space, inside of my soul but don't let the sun got downSo many sleepless days and sleepless nights, you know I spend alone
Girl I'm left with no one, no one to call my own
But this machine that clicks inside my head
Oh so cold my baby, I'm hanging by a string never letting goHow my world's turned around almost to the ground
It's you I'm thinking of, but don't let the sun go down on my love
Save me, umm
