How Can I Cry

Moira Smiley & Voco

Iâ€™m walkinâ€™ slowly takinâ€™ in a cloudy day
A river of people passes me and goes away
Iâ€™m feelinâ€™ weary Iâ€™m feelinâ€™ like Iâ€™ve wasted time
The troubles in my life just ainâ€™t worth a dime

Oh sisters and brothers forgive me for the things I say
Iâ€™m losinâ€™ the meaninâ€™ Iâ€™m losinâ€™ sense of night and day
The sun that Iâ€™m seeinâ€™ it is the same around the earth
So why is our freedom ruled by our birth

And how can I cry about freedom
When Iâ€™ve lived a whole life of liberty
And how can I sing about suffering and pain
I sing for all the souls who do not complain

Tomorrow and justice oh they seem so high and far away
While people are hungry, mistreated each and every day
Whatever oh can I do Iâ€™m standinâ€™ here on solid ground
I sing for the silent people, Lord hear our sound

Oh no oh what do I know
What do I know about suffering and pain

Wonder why blues and blacks and greys are covering my world
What is the mystery of the dove that she stays so low away
Why are my sisters singing songs of the pain so beautifully
Why are my brothers cryinâ€™ tears of silence so helplessly

And how can I cry about freedom
When Iâ€™ve lived a whole life of liberty
And how can I sing about suffering and pain
I sing for all the souls who do not complain
Who do not complain
