Good-Bye

Scott Hoying

Choking on lies, making the best of a bad conversation
Your eyes dried as I tried sleeping in your bed
To fake another smile and take with me what was mine
While racing to you foreverWe're waking up and it's 6:00 o' clock
Did you ever think, things could be the same
If we happened to wake up late?Don't let go
(Don't let go)
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-byeDon't let go
(Don't let go)
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-byeGiving applause for you
Always pointing out everyone's flaws
And breaking what binds you
'Cause your movin' on with your lifeAfter tonight, you said, last night all alone
I hope you change someday for your own goodWe're waking up and it's 6:00 o' clock
Did you ever think, things could be the same
If we happened to wake up late?Don't let go
(Don't let go)
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-byeDon't let go
(Don't let go)
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-byeWe're waking up and it's 6:00 o' clock
Did you ever think, things could be the same
If we happened to wake up late?
(Don't let go)
If we happened to wake up late?Don't let go
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-byeDon't let go
(Don't let go)
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-byeDon't let go
(Don't let go)
We both know, it's sad to say
This time it's good-bye, good-bye
