Baby's Arms

Kurt Vile

There's been but one true love
In my baby's arms, in my baby's arms
And I got the hands to hold on to them
I get sick of just about everyone
And I hide in my baby's arms
Hide in my baby's arms
'Cause except for her you know
As I've implied
I would never, ever, ever be alone
'Cause it's all in my baby's hands
Shining, shining secret stones
In my baby's hands, in my baby's hands
I get sick of just about everyone

And I hide in my baby's arms

Treat myself just like a town fellowmen

I hide in my baby's hands

Hide in my baby's hand

'Cause except for her

There's just nothing to latch on to

Yeah, yeah, yeah

There's been but one true love

In my baby's arms, in my baby's arms

In my baby's arms, in my baby's arms

My baby's arms, in my baby's arms

Oh yeah, oh yeah, my baby's arms
