If I Could...

The Echoing Green

Senses start to falter

My vision is altered

There's a blind wind running

Through the trees

My memories

They deceive so cunningly With no reply

With no reprieve

I try to chase what I believe

Into my mind

Where I lie

That everything's fineBut if I could

Turn around

And if I could

Hear the sound

And if I could

Feel the ground

Falling beneath

Falling beneath meBut if I could

Turn around

And if I could

Hear the sound

And if I could

Feel the ground

Falling beneath

Falling beneath meI don't want to tell you goodbye

But I don't want to tell you a lie

This thing

This aching

Tears my heart and

Cuts me down to sizeI don't remember

A time when things like this

Weren't so amiss

This abyss

I can't believe

I'm so naive to thisIf I could

Turn around

And if I could

Hear the sound

And if I could

Feel the ground

Falling beneath

Falling beneath meBut if I could

Turn around

And if I could

Hear the sound

And if I could

Feel the ground

Falling beneath

Falling beneath meIf I could

Turn around

And if I could

Hear the sound

And if I could

Feel the ground

Falling beneath

Falling beneath meIf I could

Turn around

And if I could

Hear the sound

And if I could

Feel the ground

Falling beneath

Falling beneath meIf I could

Turn around

Hear the sound

Feel the ground

Falling beneath me
