Don't Let Me Die

Bobby Brown

Been bout a month since youve been gone
I guess its pretty clear that you aint coming home
Meanwhile Im tryna find the strength to move on Searching the streets, tryna find you a clone
I didnt realized, that every breath I took was from you
You were my air
And I cant be civilized, cause I dont know how to live without you
I need you here, feels like Im holding my breathDont let me die girl, dont let me die girl
Dont let me die, cause I got nothing left
Dont let me die girl, dont let me die girl
Dont let me dieI guess I fucked up pretty bad
I didnt know who you were
I didnt know what we had, no
Now Im stuck living in the past
Trying to get the pieces back
But I guess now youre gone
And it hurts so bad that Ive let you walk, away, away
And its killing me softly, I dont know what to say feels like Im holding my breathDont let me die girl, dont let me die girl
Dont let me die, cause I got nothing left
Dont let me die girl, dont let me die girl
Dont let me dieIm holding on to these memories
Thats the only way that Ill survive
My biggest fear got the best of me, yeah
Cause I should have put out my pride,
Whoa, whoa, oh, oh, oh, oh mhm
Whoa, oh baby, whoa, oh, oh
Dont let me die babyDont let me die girl, dont let me die girl
I keep holding my breath
Baby baby dont let me go
Cause I got nothing left
Holding my, holding my breath
Feel like Im holding my breath
Holding my breath
Dont let me go like that
I need you here with me
Dont let me go, baby,
Dont let me go, dont let me go.
