

The Hunter

BASECAMP

Stuck inside
Lost in mind
Branch that broke and left me grounded
Sun that set
Left me blind Oh, how loud the silence sounds And I'm frozen with fear
But you beckon me near
Am I the prey you're hunting Down Is it safe to call
If I cried out
Would you speak at all
Or leave me all alone
So tired of running
Can't go another day
Just give me something
I'm trying to find a way
Back down Would you break my fall Or leave me alone Siren's screams
Lost in dreams
Ship that wrecked and left you stranded
Tide that fell
Washed you clean Oh, how loud the silence sounds And you're frozen in fear
Still I beckon you near
Are you the one I'm wanting Now
Is it safe to call
If I cried out
Would you speak at all
Or leave me all alone So tired of running
Can't go another day
Just give me something
I'm trying to find a way
Back down Would you break my fall Or leave me alone
