Reasons (feat. Andrew Allen)

Project 46

Look at the sky
The sun won't ask the world if it can rise
Look at your mind
And ask yourself what keeps you trapped inside
Look at the lies they follow you
When you run and hide
Look at the sky
The sun won't ask
The sun won't ask
The world if it can riseLook at the sky
The sun won't ask the world if it can rise
Look at your mind
And ask yourself what keeps you trapped inside
Look at the lies they follow you
When you run and hide
Look at the skyThe sun won't ask (x10)
The world if it can rise
