Yet

Kehlani

Look I ain't did shit to you yet
I ain't even shit on you yet
You ain't my enemy yet
But you ain't a friend to me yet
Don't recognize you
You ain't a friend to me yet
Don't recognize you
You ain't a friend to me yet

Now I see the fear and the threats
I see that it's hard to connect
I see niggas calling the rain but the first to complain when they sneakers get wet
I see that I'm on some new shit
I see that it's something you hate
But what is not growing is dead
If you can't understand get the fuck out my face

You want something from me that I'm just not offering
You wanna roll but you just not down for wandering
You got potential, you got that, got that
You gotta ride the wave, stop acting like that

I can go on about days, days when I did it alone
Had to go from couch to couch
Now I am sippin' on thrones
Time when my pockets was bare
Times when I just didn't eat
Times when my stomach was growling, my best friend and I went to sing on the street
I made a few dollars that day
I made 40 dollars the next
Now I hit the bank and I send all my auntie a nice little deposit, a check
Now I'm hitting it on the road
They talking about I'm 'bout to blow
I use to get paid to hang up all the posters but now I am packin' the show
