Rob Alley - Empty Room

Verse 1
Tonight I'm gonna worship you
Like there's no one in the room
Tonight I'm gonna worship you
Like there's no one in the room

I've given far, far too much praise to men who dont deserve my accolades

But tonight I'm gonna worship you
Like there's no one in the room
Like there's no one in the room

Verse 2
Tonight I'm gonna sing to you
Like there's no one in the room
Tonight I'm gonna sing to you
Like there's no one in the room

I've sung far, far too many songs without ever even offering my own

So tonight I'm gonna sing to you
Like there's no one in the room
Like there's no one in the room
Like there's no one here but you
Like there's no one in the room

Tonight I'm gonna dance with you
Like i've always wanted to

Tonight I'm gonna dance with you
Like i've always wanted to Cause I've stood still in fear of what they might say while hiding in the bonnet of my shame

But tonight I'm gonna dance with you

like there's no one in the room
like there's no one in the room
Lord like its just me and you
Like there's no one in the room

(repeat verse 1)
