

The End of Our Road (Mono)

Marvin Gaye

Oh, it's over, it's all over
Said, it's over, it's all over, baby I gotta get away from you as fast as I can
You're too much for me, woman, more than my heart can stand
Like a kid behind the wheel
You've been reckless with my heart
If I stayed around, you'd surely tear it all apart Say, the road has got to end somewhere
Honey, honey, every road has got to end somewhere
Now is the time for the showdown
So let me give you the lowdown
Now, we've come to the end of our road Woman, I'm just thinkin' 'bout all the times you promised to call
And I sat at home lonely
You only did it 'cause you knew I love you only
Runnin', runnin' around with every guy in town
I'm tellin' you, woman, no longer will I be your clown Say, the road has got to end somewhere
Every road has got to end somewhere
Woman, I'm tired of your stuff, say enough is enough
We've come to the end of our road
I can't take it no more Woman, there's no sense in you beggin' and pleadin'
To hold on when I'm the one you're leavin'
Say [Incomprehensible] had my fill of you
Flirtin's all through the years and I've almost run out of tears
I'm tellin' you, I couldn't cry if I wanted to The road has got to end somewhere
Woman, woman, every road has got to end somewhere
Time and again I've begged you to slow down
So I'm givin' you the lowdown
We've come to the end of our road, road, road Oh, this is the end, the end of our road
Oh, this is the end, the end of our road
Oh, this is the end, the end of our road
