

Go Leave

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Go leave, she's better than me
Or at least she is stronger
She will make it last longer
That's nice for you Go leave, don't come back
No more am I for the taking
But I can't say that my heart's not aching
It's breaking in two I remember days when we laughed a lot
Those that weren't so good I soon forgot
We could sit and talk till words
Were coming out our ears Not just for days or weeks or months
But it's been years, now here they come
Here they come, here come my tears
So go leave
